

News FLASHES

Merit Moves Lunar Landing Display

Merit Moving Systems partnered with another local agency to move an expensive lunar landing display to a jewelry store in a local mall without the benefit of a loading dock or forklift. Movers strategically placed the crates in the truck so that the display units could be removed and transferred off of the truck via ramps without having to move the crating materials. The move was so well planned it only took a few hours to complete!